Hi Eric:

I am delighted to accept your offer! Our hope is to get all five of the pieces together for a look-see by the bright minds attending thr COAC. May is a little way off, so we can cross the bridge of how to transport the little holed jewel to NYC at a later date. I look forward to the chance to examine it.

Congratulations to Mrs. Newman on the nice article in the St. Louis paper that I saw on E-sylum. It sounds like you married up, young man!

My mother sends along her best wishes, by the way. We spoke earlier today and she wanted to be remembered to you.

I hope all is well and look forward to talking to you soon!

Dear John:

As to our Baltimore shilling with rings you must remember that it is the most miserable of the siblings and if you cannot find a worse one we will gladly let you exhibit it as you requested. Eric
